JAMES B. JOHNSON, JR.
DIRECTOR

TO: The Honorable David M. Beasley, Governor of South Carolina, to The Honorable Members of The General Assembly, and the citizens of South Carolina

During this period, budget restrictions mandated changes compelling the State Library to reluctantly pass on costs of interlibrary loans to local libraries resulting in reduction of use. The staff of the State Library is to be highly commended for working through a difficult situation in a positive manner. With the partial restoration of funds, this situation should be eased, but the fact remains that five full-time staff positions were lost.

While continuing its traditional role of service, the State Library meets current needs. Library usage customarily measured in the number of books checked out may be analyzed in the future by the number of visits to a Web site or the like. The State Library now has a home page on the World Wide Web and three hundred plus library staff members from over the state participated in an introductory course on the Internet conducted by the State Library staff.

The State Library Foundation has been granted 501(c)(3) tax exempt status. Through a Foundation sponsored program, summer reading programs in five target counties received additional funds to increase the number of children participating in summer reading activities.

The State Library continues to provide excellent service for citizens, government, and libraries of South Carolina. As you review this report, I hope you will give us your questions and suggestions about our work in Columbia and throughout the state.

Respectfully submitted,

Margaret J. Bundy

I. GOVERNANCE/MISSION STATEMENT

Statutory authority for the South Carolina State Library is provided by Title 60, Chapter 1 of the Code of Laws of South Carolina. Originally authorized in 1929 and known as the State Library Board, the public library extension agency was first funded in 1943. It was redesignated the South Carolina State Library with a broad range of responsibilities by Act 464 of 1969. The legislation was recodified and new functions were authorized by Act 178 of 1985.

The South Carolina State Library is an independent state agency governed by a board of seven members appointed by the Governor, with one member from each Congressional District and one from the state at large. Members serve five-year terms and may be reappointed. The Director, who is responsible for the operation of the agency, is appointed by and is responsible to the State Library Board.

The South Carolina State Library's mission is to improve library services throughout the state and to ensure all citizens access to libraries and information resources adequate to meet their needs. The State Library supports libraries in meeting the informational, educational, cultural, and recreational needs of the people of South Carolina.

To accomplish this mission the South Carolina State Library has identified five strategic issues to meet the needs of the people of South Carolina:

- Identify, organize, develop, maintain, and make accessible informational resources and services to meet the needs of the people of South Carolina.
- Provide statewide programs to support improved local library services.
- Serve as the advocate for libraries in South Carolina.
- Encourage cooperation among libraries of all types.
- Continuously improve State Library operations and services.

II. HISTORY

At the urging of citizens interested in quality county-wide library service, the General Assembly passed legislation in 1929 establishing the State Public Library Association and a State Library Board composed of five citizens. In the depths of the Great Depression, no funds were appropriated for the library extension agency, but grants from the South Carolina Library Association and the Rosenwald Foundation enabled the State Library Board to employ a field agent from 1929 to 1932 to assist communities interested in the development of public library service.

The first statewide library program was carried out under the Works Project Administration from 1935 to 1943. The WPA's major objective was to provide each county of the state some measure of area-wide public library service. The WPA library program helped establish library service in some areas and enhanced existing libraries' operations in others. The WPA program made possible the establishment of bookmobile service in twenty-three counties formerly without rural library service. At its demise in 1943, the WPA had been successful in creating public library service in some form in all counties.

The State Library Board received its first appropriation of $3,000 in 1943 and inherited the assets of the WPA. The State Library Board initiated its program with emphasis on State Aid to public libraries and a goal of statewide public library service. County or regional libraries were established in all forty-six counties. The pattern of unified library systems, each legally established and governed by a single library board, made possible a good level of service by eliminating expensive duplication and overhead and by sharing resources and personnel.

When the federal Library Services Act was passed in 1956, the State Library Board, by executive order of the Governor, was charged with administering and implementing within the state the library programs authorized in the Act. Through this Act, the agency's functions were expanded to include service to the blind and physically handicapped, development of library service in state institutions, and interlibrary cooperation.

In 1969, as the result of action by the General Assembly, the State Library Board was redesignated as the South Carolina State Library and assumed responsibility for public library development, library service for state institutions, service for the blind and physically handicapped, and library service to state government agencies. In 1985, an act was passed providing for the recodification of the State Library's legislation. The new legislation reauthorized all functions of the State Library and consolidated a variety of authorizations found in state and federal laws and regulations, executive orders and budget provisos.

III. ORGANIZATION/OPERATIONS

A. Organization

The director, who is responsible for the operation of the South Carolina State Library, is appointed by and is responsible to the Board of the State Library. The director is assisted by a deputy director. The work of the library is carried out by six departments. A brief description of each follows.

1. Administrative Services. Provides support services in the areas of budgeting, financial management, personnel, procurement, public relations, secretarial and clerical support, and facilities management.

2. Blind and Handicapped Services. Provides library service to the blind and physically handicapped in cooperation with the Library of Congress, National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped. Reading materials are provided in special formats (recorded, large print, and braille). The service is free, as is the loan of equipment necessary to listen to the recorded materials.

III. (cont'd)

3. Library Development. Provides consultant services to public and state institutional libraries to further the development and improvement of library services statewide. Administers state and federal grants-in-aid programs.

4. Reader Services. Provides research services to state government agencies. Provides statewide reference and interlibrary loan service to supplement local library resources. Coordinates the South Carolina State Documents Depository System.

III. D. Highlights

FY 1996-1997 was perhaps one of the most difficult years in the history of the South Carolina State Library. The year began with a gubernatorial veto of 4.6% ($333,795) from the State Library's budget. Since the State Library did not take reductions in the State Aid and rent portions of its budget, the veto of funds resulted in a 17.3% loss in the Library's operations funds. The budget veto had substantial impact on the operations of the State Library and on libraries and citizens it serves.

The staff is to be commended for their commitment to service during this difficult period. A contingency plan was developed to cope with the loss of state funds. Compounding the problem was the uncertainty of federal funds which the State Library administers. There was no assurance that federal funds would be available after September 30, 1996, since authorization for the Library Services and Construction Act expired at that time.

As a result of the veto, the State Library lost five full time positions, funds for the interlibrary loan program, and general operating funds used throughout the agency. The most significant impact was on the interlibrary loan program. For almost half a century the State Library has enhanced public library services with its interlibrary loan program which allows local libraries to borrow materials needed by local citizens from the State Library's collection. Due to a lack of funding for postage and other operations costs, the State Library began passing postage and photocopy charges on to local libraries. As a consequence libraries in the state, already operating on tight budgets, reduced their use of interlibrary loan, thereby lessening access to information for all South Carolinians. Use of the State Library's collections by local libraries declined significantly in FY96.

At the end of the state fiscal year the future of federal funds was not settled. Congress is debating the creation of legislation to replace the 40 year old Library Services and Construction Act. This uncertainty will impact State Library programs in FY97. Eleven State Library positions are 100% federally funded. Many basic operating expenses are also covered by federal funds. Federal funds for FY96 were not received until late in the year resulting in federal grant expenditures being down.

Despite budgetary constraints, the State Library staff continued to make progress in laying the framework for the State Library's programs to help both the State Library and local libraries meet the information needs of South Carolinians in the next century. The staff redefined the Library's strategic planning process. Training needs were identified, and the State Library conducted a highly successful workshop series on the Internet for more than 300 public library staff. The State Library developed a series of workshops to train state government employees on how to effectively find information on the Internet. The State Library views public libraries as the appropriate place locally for providing citizen access to government information. Throughout the year State Library staff met with various organizations studying this issue of citizen access to information. The draft report, "SCIWay Blueprint: A Plan for Developing the Public Portion of South Carolina's Highway," prepared for the Budget and Control Board identifies a role for public libraries in this area.

IV. LIBRARY SERVICES

A. Services to State Government

The State Library provides library and information services for the General Assembly, state officers and agencies, and state government employees. Services to state government include:

- Staff of research librarians who conduct research and answer information requests for state employees to help them perform their jobs.
- Free loan of library materials, including books, journals, government publications, videotapes, and audiocassettes.
- Interlibrary loan service to locate and borrow publications that state employees need which are not contained in the State Library's collection.
- Special presentations and training programs for state government agencies and employees to inform them of the services and resources of the library as well as electronic information resources on the Internet.

B. Interlibrary Loan Service

The State Library provides reference and interlibrary loan service to supplement the local resources of South Carolina libraries. Since no single library can meet all of the diverse research needs of its patrons, the collections of the State Library have been developed as a source upon which local libraries can draw to make information and materials available to South Carolinians in their own communities. The State Library also lends materials upon request to other libraries throughout the country.

Statistics on use of the State Library's Interlibrary Loan Service from July 1, 1995 to June 30, 1996:

- 30,033 requests processed from libraries.
- 24,898 title requests for books and articles handled.

- State agencies/institutions supply 15 copies of publications to the State Library.
- The State Library catalogs and processes publications and retains 3 copies for its permanent collection. 1 copy is distributed to each of the 11 participating in-state depository libraries and 1 copy to the Library of Congress.

The eleven affiliate depository libraries which receive publications through this program include 9 university and 2 county libraries:

- Clemson University
- Coastal Carolina University
- College of Charleston
- Francis Marion University
- South Carolina State University
- Spartanburg County Library
- USC-Aiken
- USC-Beaufort
- Greenville County Library
- Winthrop University
- Lander University

State Documents activities in 1995/96 included:

- Selection of the 10 most notable state publications of 1995. Awards were made on Freedom of Information Day, March 16, 1996.
- South Carolina Information Exchange on May 16, 1996, with emphasis on state government information available in electronic format.

Patron Contact: DBPH publishes a quarterly newsletter. Patrons have access to a toll-free In-WATS direct line to the library and enjoy free matter mailing privileges for both receiving items from and returning items to the library. Walk-ins (patrons who chose to visit the library in person) receive personal service and are assisted by readers advisors.

FY96 In-WATS activity: 15,191 calls for 695 hours of staff time

FY96 Outgoing calls: 5,672 calls for 274 hours of staff time

FY96 Walk-in patrons: 1,198 (average per month=100)

In appreciation for talking book services, many patrons--as well as family members and friends--make donations to the library. In FY96 financial contributions (including memorial donations) totaled $8,111. Donations, by large print readers, of personal copies of large print titles resulted in the library receiving approximately $1,355 worth of large print titles. Also donated: one closed-circuit television (CCTV) and $200 worth of descriptive videotapes.

V. LIBRARY MATERIALS

To meet the information needs of both state government and the citizens of South Carolina, the State Library maintains a collection of non-fiction publications on a wide range of topics, such as history, art, applied technology, political science, and the social sciences. The collection also includes audiovisual materials and state and federal documents. The acquisition and organization of library materials is handled by staff of the Technical Services Department. Specific titles which are requested by libraries and by state employees are monitored and often serve as recommendations for purchase. By acquiring, housing, and offering these information materials in one central location, the library attempts to eliminate the need for state agencies to maintain expensive, individual collections. The library's collection also serves to supplement the collections of local public and other libraries which often lack sufficient funds to purchase extensive research materials.

A. Statistical Summary. The book collection is chiefly a one-copy, non-fiction collection, except for South Carolina titles. It includes periodicals and newspapers in both paper and microfilm, and services such as Educational Resources Information Center (ERIC) microfiche. Separate collections include federal and state documents and audiovisual materials. Principal additions during the year are as follows:

All materials are cataloged according to national library cataloging standards. In order to better serve users, the staff acquires and processes additions to the collections efficiently. The Technical Services staff enters the data into the State Library's automated library system and maintains the database.

As a member of Southeastern Library Network, a computerized network of libraries affiliated with the national network, OCLC, Inc., it is possible to add the State Library's holdings to the international network database, thereby enabling greater use through interlibrary loan.

B. Special Collections.

The library maintains a number of special collections which focus on specific topics to support the information needs of South Carolina's citizens. These include:

1. Audiovisual Collection - A collection of materials in videotape, audiocassette, 16mm film, or slide/tape which focus on specific topics to assist the library's customers. Audiovisual materials to support programs for children in public libraries and to provide information and training in the fields of early childhood education are maintained. Training videos to help state employees improve their job and management skills are purchased and circulated to a wide variety of state agencies. Audiovisual materials which train library staff and librarians are purchased to improve the skills of staff that work in libraries.

2. Blind and Physically Handicapped Collection - The collection of materials at the Library for the Blind and Physically Handicapped numbered 303,174. Volunteer narrators using the custom-designed recording booth and equipment have supplemented the new titles supplied by NLS in addition to the acquisition of volunteer recorded titles from other libraries.

V. B. (cont'd)

3. ERIC (Educational Resources Information Center) - An extensive collection of research publications on educational topics in microfiche format. The library subscribes to the ERIC indexes in CD-ROM and paper to assist library users in locating research reports on topics relating to education and children.

4. Government Publications. As a federal documents depository library since 1970, the State Library receives publications in print, microfiche and electronic formats. As the official state documents depository, the State Library has the world's largest collection of South Carolina state government publications.

5. Grants Research Collection - Includes directories and other guides to assist nonprofit organizations, government agencies, and citizens in locating grants. The State Library serves as an official cooperating collection of the Foundation Center and compiles and publishes the South Carolina Foundation Directory.

6. South Carolina Collection - Includes published materials dealing with South Carolina subjects. Multiple copies of South Carolina titles are usually purchased to ensure that one copy remains in the library for long-term, historical purposes.

7. South Carolina Fiction Cooperative - Fiction titles, identified as the "last copy" in a particular library's collection, are cataloged and maintained as part of the State Library's collection to ensure that citizens have access to older novels.

VI. LIBRARY DEVELOPMENT

The State Library provides services to assist with the development and improvement of public library services and state institutional library services throughout the state.

A. Consultant Services. State Library staff provides consultant assistance to library directors, boards of trustees, library staffs, library organizations, and state agencies and institutions. Staff serves as liaison between the State Library and thirty-nine county and regional library systems serving all forty-six counties and the thirty-three libraries maintained by seven state agencies. A combination of on-site visits, telephone contacts, and correspondence as well as workshops, small interest group meetings, and information exchanges are used in assisting libraries in identifying their needs and developing strategies to meet these needs.

During FY 96 State Library staff:

- made 3,020 consultations (telephone and personal) with local public library staff
- made 148 field trips to public and state institutional libraries;
- attended 34 public library board meetings;
- administered $4,371,028 in State Aid to County Libraries;
- supervised federal Library Services and Construction Act projects providing approximately $348,125 in grants-in-aid to public libraries and $19,051 to state institutional libraries;
- monitored public library budgets totalling almost $44 million in local funds;
- provided construction assistance for 21 library facilities in 16 counties;
- published South Carolina Public Libraries Annual Statistical Summary;
- certified 21 professional and pre-professional public librarians; and
- represented the State Library at local, state, and national conferences, conventions, workshops, professional association meetings, building dedications, and other functions.

B. Grant Administration

1. State Aid to County Libraries. The program of State Aid to county libraries has been funded continuously since 1943. For FY96, the General Assembly appropriated $1.25 per capita with a minimum of $15,000 per county for a total of $4,371,028 to the State Library for distribution to the county libraries. However, State support of county libraries as a percentage of total county library support has steadily declined for more than a decade making it harder for county libraries to meet the informational needs of their citizens. The regulations under which the funds are administered require that participating libraries be legally established, provide county-wide service, maintain levels of county funding, and meet certain standards of service. Qualifying libraries may use State Aid funds to supplement staff salaries, to purchase books and audio visual materials, to purchase or lease equipment and computer hardware and software, and to operate and maintain bookmobiles. State Aid's matching and maintenance of effort requirements have encouraged county governments to increase local support for libraries.

2. Federal Aid to South Carolina Libraries. The Library Services and Construction Act (LSCA) provides federal aid for the improvement and expansion of library services in three major areas:

LSCA Title I – public library services;
LSCA Title II – public library construction; and
LSCA Title III – interlibrary cooperation and resource sharing.

Detailed accounts of LSCA activities are contained in the State Library's Annual Program Library Services and Construction Act, 1995-96 and in The South Carolina Program for Library Development, 1995-1998.

a. LSCA Title I – Public Library Services
This title supports improved service to public libraries, institutional libraries and special segments of the population with emphasis on reaching the unserved or inadequately served.

The Title I program for FY96 was significantly revised placing greater emphasis on expanding citizen access to information through staff development and training, acquisition of materials, use of technology, and development of services to special populations (Children and Young Adults, the Elderly, the Disadvantaged, the Illiterate, and the Institutionalized).

Title I Projects:

(1) Continuing Education (CE)
The State Library administers the career education project which provides continuing education opportunities through workshops and training grants for public and institutional library personnel and for public library trustees. The annual CE plan was developed in consultation with the state's public library directors, the State Library Staff, the University of South Carolina College of Library and Information Science, and the South Carolina Library Association. CE statistics for FY96:

42 State Library sponsored workshops
1,066 Participants
38 County and Regional Libraries sent one or more staff members to workshops
1 Training grant was awarded to 1 public library. Total $500.

(2) Services to Special Populations
Basic library service needs -- information, education, and recreation -- are the same for all groups, but the methods of delivering these services must be tailored to meet the needs of each group.

VI.B. 2. (cont'd)

- Children and Young Adults
  Services to Children and Young Adults were a top priority in the FY96 plan because of the need in South Carolina to address children's school readiness and achievement in our effort to reach the National Education Goals. Grants were awarded mostly for projects focusing on reading readiness and projects aimed at improving children's access to information and ability to access information through the use of technology. In FY96, 15 grants were awarded to 15 libraries. Total: $141,725.

- The Elderly
  Senior Citizens now represent almost 29% of the total population and offer new challenges for the delivery of library services. Grants were awarded to libraries to develop and promote innovative library programs for the elderly. The grants awarded in FY 95 were completed in FY 96.

- The Disadvantaged
  County and Regional Libraries were eligible to apply for grants to plan, develop, or expand programs of service for the disadvantaged. In FY 96, 1 grant awarded. Total $4,000.

- The Institutionalized
  Libraries in state-supported residential institutions continue to provide useful resources and programming to their clientele. The State Library assisted in the development and improvement of libraries for residents in state-supported institutions.

- Public Library Automation and Technology
  Public libraries are expanding access to library services through the use of technology. In FY96, 7 grants were awarded to 7 libraries. Total $159,965.

- Service to the Inadequately Served
  These grants are intended for the improvement of public library service to areas where library service is inadequate to meet the needs of the public. Grants were awarded for the improvement of information resources, the purchase of bookmobiles to improve delivery of library services to remote areas, for special programs serving adults as well as children, and for staffing for the delivery of library services. In FY96, 38 grants were awarded. Total $375,689.

VI.B. 2. (cont'd)

b. LSCA Title II -- Public Library Construction
This title provides funds for construction projects which contribute to improved services in the participating county library systems. Relatively small federal construction grants have continued to serve as a strong incentive for local funding initiatives. During FY96, the following public libraries either received or were in the process of applying for LSCA Title II grants:

Cherokee County Library, Headquarters expansion
Chester County Library, Richburg Branch
Chesterfield County Library, Cheraw Branch
Dorchester County Library, Headquarters expansion
Kershaw County Library, Elgin Branch
Lancaster County Library, Kershaw Branch
Pickens County Library, Central-Clemson Regional Branch
Williamsburg County Library, Headquarters and Hemingway Branch

In FY96, Title II funds expended totalled $52,500.

A booklet describing the twenty-two public library buildings constructed in South Carolina from 1991 to 1995 was published and distributed during the year.

c. LSCA Title III -- Interlibrary Cooperation and Resource Sharing
Programs funded under Title III support the activities of the South Carolina Library Network administered by the State Library. A variety of projects have resulted in improved communications, bibliographic access, interlibrary loan, consultant services, preservation of library materials, and study and planning. FY96 activities are detailed in the South Carolina Library Network Section of this report. In FY96, Title III funds expended totalled $254,211.

VII. SOUTH CAROLINA LIBRARY NETWORK

The South Carolina Library Network (SCLN), coordinated by the South Carolina State Library, supports the efforts of local libraries to meet the information needs of all South Carolinians through the sharing of library resources. The 172 present SCLN member libraries by type are:

Public libraries 54	Technical College libraries 16
Institutional libraries 4	School libraries 23
Academic libraries 37	Special libraries 38

Libraries participating in the South Carolina Library Network have access to: the LION (Library Information ON-line) automated catalog of the South Carolina State Library; an electronic mail component for the transmission of interlibrary loan requests; EBBS, an electronic bulletin board service reporting on current library activity in the state; the FEDCAT (Federal Document Catalog) information database which can be used to identify United States documents issued by the Government Printing Office since 1976; and the South Carolina On-line Library Directory, containing entries for more than 400 South Carolina libraries.

For the purposes of obtaining information and materials not available locally, SCLN member libraries have always used their computers to dial into the State Library automated system. Through its membership in MetroNet, the state government telecommunications network coordinated by the Budget and Control Board, the State Library was able to offer access to the SCLN through the Internet in 1995-96.

Network Services conducted 30 SCLN training and technical support sessions during 1995-96. Network staff also participated in a variety of educational activities designed to support and improve reference service across the state:

--The State Library continued the SC FirstSearch Project, designed to introduce on-line searching to ten libraries with no previous access to electronic databases. Local reference service for participating libraries is enhanced by subsidized searches provided through August 1996.
--For public libraries serving the largest metropolitan areas in the state, the State Library organized a sixth annual Reference Exchange in August 1995. This meeting brought together reference librarians from Charleston, Greenville, Richland and Spartanburg County Libraries for a discussion of mutual concerns in the areas of public service and electronic reference.
--In September 1995, the State Library concluded a statewide Preservation Education Project, initiated to educate participants in protecting the physical condition of the library resources of the state. For 3.5 years, the project consultant, whose services were obtained from The Charleston Museum, conducted training sessions for librarians on the care and repair of library materials, made presentations to adult library patrons on the preservation of family history documents, and worked with children participating in library programs to teach the proper handling of books.
--A two-day Reference Basics workshop was held in October 1995, to review the use of reference materials and the principles of customer service for staff from public libraries.
--In January 1996, a System Managers Exchange brought together library automation system managers from South Carolina public libraries to discuss computer security techniques and telecommunications issues.

VII. (cont'd)

--The last in a series of "Better Communication = Better Reference Service" workshops was held in January 1996 for reference staff members from public libraries.

State Library Network staff served as liason with other groups concerned with cooperative activities: the MetroNet/StateNet Security Users Group; the Southeastern Library Network (SOLINET) Network Forum; South Carolina SOLINET Users Group; Palmetto Archives, Libraries, and Museums Council on Preservation; and the State Historical Records Advisory Board.

VIII. PUBLIC INFORMATION SERVICES

The State Library's public information service is responsible for a statewide program of publicity and public relations designed to publicize South Carolina libraries and to make the general public aware of library services. Activities include news releases, exhibits, special programs, and publications. The State Library's public relations activities are planned and coordinated by the Public Relations Committee. This committee was responsible for implementation of activities using a team approach. Work began on the development of a 3-year public relations/marketing plan which will guide activities beginning in FY 98.

Major activities include:
Newsletters: The State Library published and distributed 6 issues of its bi-monthly newsletter, News for S.C. Libraries, to all libraries in South Carolina as well as to all public library trustees. News About Services for the Blind and Physically Handicapped was issued quarterly and distributed to all registered users of the service.

October 1995: Library service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped was promoted at the South Carolina State Fair. This service was also promoted at 12 meetings of major professional associations throughout the state in an on-going effort to attract more patrons and educate the general public about talking book services.

November 1995: Children's Book Week was celebrated in a cooperative program involving public libraries and school library media centers co-sponsored by the State Library and the State Department of Education.

February 1996: "L+I+B+R+A+R+Y/The Formula for Lifelong Education" promotional materials were reprinted and made available to all public libraries.

March 1996: In observance of Freedom of Information Day, the State Library named the 10 most notable state government publications of the year. Certificates were awarded to honored agencies. An exhibit highlighting the notable state documents and the public's right to free access to information was displayed at the Greenville County Library for six weeks during March and April 1996.

April 1996: In conjunction with National Library Week and at the request of the State Library, Governor David M. Beasley proclaimed April 14-20, 1996, as Library Week in South Carolina. The State Library distributed copies of the proclamation to libraries throughout the state for public display.

IX. VOLUNTEER PROGRAM

Volunteers contributing time and services benefit the State Library and particularly the Department for the Blind and Physically Handicapped (DBPH) where 51 volunteers contributed 2,388 hours of service. Members of boards, committees and advisory councils represent user groups and aid in the development of policies and services.

Under the guidance of the Volunteer Coordinator, narrators recorded books and magazines about South Carolina. Narrators skillfully recorded issues of "S.C. Wildlife" and "Sandlapper" magazines and the department's newsletter. Two books were recorded and added to the S.C. Collection" "Know Your State" and "45/96: The Ninety-Six Sampler of South Carolina Poetry". The "S.C. Driver's Manual" was updated, and the descriptive video loan policy and list of videos was made available to patrons on cassette.

Other individuals were trained as book inspectors, receptionists, and clerical assistants. Receptionists answered the telephone, assisted visitors, prepared bulk mailings for the Summer Reading program, prepared newsletters and overdue book notices for mailing, and labeled thousands of promotional brochures. Assistance with some of these projects was also received from volunteers with the Retired and Senior Volunteer Program (RSVP). Also, public relations efforts received a boost from volunteers who staffed exhibit booths at two events that reached thousands of adults age 55 and over.

Specialy trained Telephone Pioneers repaired more than 1,100 cassette machines and record players. Because of their work, South Carolina was able to transfer a portion of its inventory to two other states badly in need of talking book machines.

During FY96, 89 individuals contributed 2,476 hours of service as shown below:

State Library

	Profile of Members	Hours of Service
Library Board	7	64

Department for the Blind and Physically Handicapped

	Profile of Members	Hours of Service

Based on formulas from the Governor's Office, the service value of DBPH volunteers is $31,562 with the total value of volunteers to the State Library being more than $32,724.
